

THE STUDIO PROJECT

12-WEEK IMMERSIVE
FEBRUARY 5 - MAY 21
MONDAYS, 6-9PM

LEARN
BRONZE CASTING

BUILD YOUR PORTFOLIO

FREE PROGRAM
LIMITED TO 10 STUDENTS

Edward Kemeys, Gray Spirit,
c. 1900, Bronze, JKM Collection,
National Museum of Wildlife Art,
M1987.183

The Studio Project is a 12-week program designed to prepare high school students for fine art careers. Students will study masterworks at the National Museum of Wildlife Art then make their own bronze sculptures using bronze casting techniques. Program instructors are local artists and teachers Sam and Jenny Dowd. This program is a collaboration between the Art Association of Jackson Hole and the National Museum of Wildlife Art.

Questions? Please contact Lisa Simmons at lsimmons@wildlifeart.org or 307-732-5435

APPLICATION ONLINE NOW | DEADLINE: JANUARY 23

<https://tinyurl.com/ycuvmoox>

