

MORE THAN ART.

NATIONAL MUSEUM of WILDLIFE ART

Our world-class art Museum is consistently recognized as a top attraction in Jackson Hole. The stunning building overlooks the National Elk Refuge and features 14 Masterwork Galleries, with work by prominent artists such as Georgia O'Keeffe, Andy Warhol, John James Audubon, and Henri Rousseau.

Visiting the Museum enriches lives through the power of art, nature, wildlife, and the West.

Add a Docent Tour

Enhance your experience at the Museum with a tour from a well-trained, highly knowledgeable docent. Their insight and stories make the artwork come alive!

Tripadvisor ranked
#1 Museum in Jackson!

We are More than Art

While our world-renown art collection is impressive, visitors also enjoy the Museum Shop, where they can find local and creative gifts, and Palate Restaurant, with beautifully created meals that complement the artwork. Visitors can stretch their legs and walk the 3/4 mile Sculpture Trail, with 20 large bronzes.

Pro Tip!
Summer is the optimal time for guests to enjoy the outdoor Sculpture Trail, and dining outdoors on the Museum's Terrace. However, winter guests get stunning views of thousands of elk on the National Elk Refuge across the street from the Museum.
